

“Work Experience in the Pacific Northwest: From Basics to Best Practices”

A One-Day Professional Development Workshop

Friday, November 3, 2006

Time	Title	Location	Presentation
8:00-9:00	Registration, Resource Table	Lobby McLaughlin	Continental Breakfast provided. Attendees are invited to bring any forms or materials they would like to share with others.
9:00-12:00	Legal Issues/Risk Management for Experience Based Learning	McLaughlin Auditorium	Dr. Marty Ford (Brandeis University), an experienced CEIA national trainer, presents legal issues affecting all students and institutions offering experience based programs. Marty will offer current information and examples that will help keep you, your students, and your organizations as prepared as possible to deal with circumstances that could arise. Q & A time included!
12:00- 1:15	Lunch	Randall Hall	Buffet lunch and the opportunity to network with other professionals.
1:15-2:15 Breakout “A”	Best Practices: Professional Standards and Trends	McLaughlin Auditorium	Work experience professionals Alex Kozlowski (Rogue CC), Andrea Newton (Lane CC), Rich Horton (Linn-Benton CC) and Gary Kuhn (Chemeketa CC) offer a panel on current guidelines and standards of best practice for Co-op, technology trends, and connections to Pathways and current high school efforts.
1:15-2:15 Breakout “B”	Best Practices: Working with Employers and Supervisors	Pauling P102	An experienced panel of employers including Amy Burrigh (Weyerhaeuser), Steve Krautscheid (Tuality HealthCare), Debbie Curran (KPTV) and Dr. Randall Haveman (Sunnyside Veterinary Hospital) provide tips for success from the employer’s perspective.
2:15-2:30	Break
2:30-3:30 Breakout “A”	Best Practices: Marketing Your Program	McLaughlin Auditorium	Coordinator Tamara Pinkas (Lane Community College) presents proven strategies for successful marketing of your program to both internal and external audiences.
2:30-3:30 Breakout “B”	Best Practices: Co-op Models	Pauling P102	Round Tables designed for discussion about the variety of co-op or work-based learning organizational models found in high schools and colleges and their advantages and limitations. George Knox, Portland Community College, is the facilitator
3:40-4:00	Door Prizes & Wrap-up	Auditorium	Information about other professional development opportunities plus Exciting Door Prizes!

“Work Experience in the Pacific Northwest: From Basics to Best Practices”

A One-Day Professional Development Workshop

Friday, November 3, 2006